On June 27, 2013, Midwest Gaming & Entertainment, LLC ("Midwest") filed a complaint (Case No. 2013-CH-15736) challenging Cook County's new tax on gambling devices which would include slot machines at Rivers Casino Des Plaines. The Complaint asserts four counts, each alleging a separate violation of the Illinois State Constitution. On August 27, 2014, the Court granted MG&E's motion for summary judgment and invalidated Cook County's tax in its entirety as unconstitutional under the Illinois Constitution. Cook County has subsequently filed a Notice of Appeal. Cook County filed its brief on February 26, 2015. Briefing will continue into the second quarter of 2015. Cook County has agreed to a stay of any imposition of the tax until MG&E's claims have been resolved. The current outcome of the pending litigation is unknown.

Midwest Gaming & Entertainment, LLC ("MG&E") constructed a permanently moored barge with adjacent food and beverage facilities and a parking structure (the "Rivers Casino") located at 3000 S. River Road, Des Plaines, Illinois, for the purpose of conducting gaming operations. Midwest Gaming & Entertainment also has acquired an office building at 2980 S. River Road, Des Plaines, Illinois for back-of-house and training functions. There are no proposed riverboat gaming operations pending review at this time and no approval of any riverboat gaming operation for the relevant time period.

In 2014, Rivers Casino generated approximately $425,500,000 in Adjusted Gross Receipts and had over 3,500,000 admissions. Further, the City of Des Plaines collected almost $25,000,000 in gaming taxes ($24.8M), of which it shared almost $6,000,000 with economically disadvantaged communities and returned $10,000,000 to the State.

As of December 31, 2014 Rivers Casino had a total active headcount of approximately 1,467 team members. MG&E has committed to equal opportunity employment and diversity with respect to its employees, vendors, suppliers and independent contractors. MG&E has committed to recruiting, training, and advancing people of any race, national origin, ancestry, sex, sexual orientation, sexual identity and expression, marital status, family status, lifestyle, age, culture, religion, military and veteran status, citizenship, disability, or other protected status.
